

November Merrily Starts Social Whirl of the Season

Proves that Sonoma Does Not Intend Winter to Lag
Surprise, Wedding Anniversaries, "At Homes"
"500" and Farewell Parties

A pretty tribute to the esteem of a large circle of friends was the surprise party given to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helberg on the occasion of their twenty fifth wedding anniversary last Saturday at their always hospitable home in Schellville.

The guests to the number of fifty assembled at the San Luis School house, which had been chosen as the trying place for the merry makers and soon the clear cold night was astir to the whirl of motors and the joyous greetings of the conspirators as they descended cautiously to the Helberg home. Their approach was unheralded save for the watch dogs friendly greeting and when Mr. Helberg came upon the scene he was confronted by the biggest surprise of his life as was also his goodly wife. After congratulations and greetings, the party proceeded to make merry and dancing was soon inaugurated. It proved a popular pastime, but those who did not negotiate any of the fancy steps, swapped stories and exchanged pleasantries around the big fire place and its cheery blaze.

At eleven o'clock refreshments were served and after toasts to the long life and prosperity of Mr. and Mrs. Helberg had been given and a number of pretty remembrances presented the merry party broke up. The following were present on this long to be remembered occasion:

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Akers, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johansen, Mr. and Mrs. Beamer, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Steiger, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Simmons, Mrs. J. F. Tate, Mrs. Lee Tate, Mrs. A. F. Hopke, Mrs. D. Volquardsen, Mrs. A. J. Landsborough, Miss Marie Helberg, Miss Edna Holubar, Cyde Johansen, Wm. Helberg, Fred Helberg, Rev. S. Holt, Frank Groskopf, Chas. Groskopf, Logan Beamer, Marguerite Helberg, Barbara Knight, Baby Alice Knight, Joe Keiser, Jr. and Antone Keiser.

A family reunion in which three generations participated was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johansen on Broadway Sunday, in honor of their twentieth wedding anniversary. About twenty relatives from this valley and from Napa felicitated the popular couple on this milestone in their happy journey together over life's highway and they were presented with a beautiful set of white and gold Limoges china.

A bounteous feast at the large table which the children of the couple had decorated most appropriately was no small part of the day's enjoyment and a fine large wedding cake was the piece de resistance of the spread.

Mr. and Mrs. Johansen were married in this valley in 1895 and they are numbered among our most esteemed and substantial couples.

Three clever children have blessed their union and the family is about to move into their fine new home in which we hope many more happy years may be passed together.

Sociability and business were the motives for the pleasant monthly session of the parishoners of Trinity church, which was held at the Louis Breitenbach home Tuesday evening. About twenty-eight ladies and gentlemen were present, and after an informal discussion of the business matters, card playing and music were on the program. The host and hostess, assisted by their daughters, provided delicious refreshments, and the evening passed most enjoyably.

Next week will be rounded out by two delightful affairs, the bazaar of St. Barbara's Guild on Friday and the moonlight dance at Agua Caliente Springs, Saturday night the 20th.

The entertainment of the Episcopal church workers is to be delightful. The program will consist of numerous and tuneful choruses by a score of the younger generation who will impersonate the well known characters of "Mother Goose." Interpretative dancing by Miss Virginia Pomeroy of Santa Rosa. Readings by Mrs. Rolfe L. Thompson, also of Santa Rosa. It is indeed a matter of congratulation that a Sonoma audience is again to have the pleasure of hearing this talented artist. A clever little playlet, entitled "Got You Steve," by home talent will conclude the program.

The remainder of the evening will be devoted to dancing for which excellent music has been engaged. Fancy articles and many good things to satisfy the inner man will be on sale during the evening.

The Native Daughters believe in keeping the social ball rolling so on Monday night they had a delightful little time at the lodge rooms. Miss Amy Engler was the popular member initiated and they gave her a royal welcome. After the business session the Native Sons were invited to join in the merry making and Will Helberg and C. Groskopf, who instituted the Parlor, were presented with handsome gold cuff buttons by the appreciative Daughters of the Golden West. Dancing was then inaugurated and good "eats" and tantalizing music made the evening pass most jolly.

One of the "smartest" affairs of the week was the farewell five hundred party given for Mrs. J. A. Landsborough by Mrs. Bigelow and the Misses Anna and Emma Kenyon Thursday. After a spirited card game the guests repaired to the dining room, where under the softening glow of candelabra a delectable repast was served. Mrs. P. N. Stofen presided over the coffee cups at the beautifully appointed table. The "500" prize winners were Miss Meta Stofen, silver candlestick; Mrs. J. A. Landsborough, silver deposit relish dish; Mrs. Arthur Luce, (consolation) hand painted powder bowl. Those present were Mesdames Landsborough, Stofen, H. Bates, Hays, Thomson, Simmons, Hotz, Cowgill, Schofner, Wagner, Campbell, Rowell, Gary, Luce, R. Hotz, Shaw, Hall, Dorman and Bigelow. Misses Schofner, Dorman, Stofen and Kenyon.

Mrs. H. Eaton of Sonoma Vista entertained a congenial coterie of lady friends Wednesday at "500" Mrs. Wicker won an artistic copy of "The End of the Trail." Mrs. Michaelson, second prize winner, was presented with a silver deposit sugar and creamer, while Mrs. Marie Chase carried off the pretty consolation prize. The afternoon ended around the tea table.

The Croquet Club held the finals in the tournament of the season yesterday an exciting afternoon was spent at the pretty grounds of the Michaelson home. A luncheon in honor of Mrs. Landsborough preceded the play.

HUNTING CLUB HAD FEARS

The Santa Rosa Gun Club hunts quail in this vicinity at this season but accuses local hunters of hunting their goats wherefore it is said they wanted to have the case of Virgil Butts and A. M. Hilderbrandt transferred to Santa Rosa where the local nimrods influence could have no possible effect on the disposition of the case which grew out of the complaint filed in Judge Small's Court last week by Will Helberg. The Santa Rosa joy hunters were coming along the Schellville road in a machine when a succulent quail inadvertently attracted their attention sitting on the Helberg fence. Butts who is a deputy in the Assessor's office did not tax his memory with the law and Helberg declared a shot was fired and a smoking cartrid eard busy hunting dog bore evidence of the laws infraction. Wherefore Helberg swore to a warrant against Butts and Hilderbrandt and they promptly plead not guilty.

Judge Small plays no favorites and invited them to transfer the case if they wanted to do so. He does not discriminate and unless the law is broken it matters little to him in quail season whether a dead bird goes home in an automobile or in a grimy pocket, whether it is cooked a la Louis or eaten by yellow jackets, whether a shell smokes or a man drinks. He is neutral and the Santa Rosa sports can rely on a square deal before His Honor any time. They came to that conclusion too and withdrew their pleas and entered one of guilty: wherefore Judge Small, out of the goodness of his heart, fined them each just $5 for discharging fire arms on the county highway.

BOY FARMER TELLS OF FINE TOUR

George Cooper Writes Interestingly of Trip Across Continent. Visits W. J. Eryan's Home

Boston, Mass., Oct. 28, 1915 Editor, Sonoma Index-Tribune: On Tuesday, October 19, we arrived at Salt Lake City. We obtained sight seeing buses and toured the city, the driver pointing out all places of interest, such as the University, Great Marmon Tabernacle and Temple. We had luncheon at the Hotel Wilson after which we went to the train and started for Provo. After a short ride we arrived at Provo and were met at the train by several autos which conveyed us to the near by farms. The next day we traveled through the Rockies and at Tennessee Pass, which is the highest point in the Rockies, we had a snow fight. That afternoon we arrived at Colorado Springs and had dinner at the Alma Hotel. The next morning we left for a hike in the neighboring hills. We visited the Garden of Gods which has many wonderful rock formations, many of the rocks being very high and the sides so steep that it is impossible to climb them. After a very enjoyable day of hiking we left Colorado Springs at 3 p. m.

That evening we arrived at Denver and found the Boy Scouts of that city waiting for us. We were taken all over the city and we went to the top of the 26 story tower, which is 330 feet high. From there we could see the whole illuminated city, which looked very beautiful. We also visited the Chamber of Commerce and there shook hands with the Governor of Colorado.

The next morning we spent on the train and went through the great corn fields of Nebraska. Corn is grown extensively through that country and is one of the great types of agriculture. That afternoon we arrived at Lincoln. We visited the capitol and also the University. We were taken in autos to the home of Wm. Jennings Bryan which we found to be an alfalfa and hop ranch. His house is very large and made of red brick and located on the summit of a high hill. From there we went to the University Farm. We went through the Home Economics, plant industry and live stock buildings after which we were shown some fine stock. These animals were the roughbreds, and the horses have won many ribbons. In the stock judging pavilion we saw the four leading types of dairy cows lined up. They were the Jersey, Holstein, Guernsey and Ayrshire. At 5 p. m. we left for Omaha where we had dinner.

At 5:20 the next morning we arrived at Ames, Iowa. We visited several large farms there of great interest. On one we saw some fine thoroughbred Chester White hogs, one boar weighing 900 lbs and was valued at $1000. After spending an enjoyable day we left for Chicago.

Yours Respectfully,
GEORGE COOPER.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

George Howard, a cousin of Ex-President Wm. Howard Taft and a resident of New York City, was here Sunday on a visit to Mrs. L. W. Keyes and Mrs. A. D. Lowell. He was accompanied by his aunt, Miss Maguire. Mr. Howard is a prototype of his distinguished relative, both personally and politically, being large, heavy set and a staunch Republican.

Mrs. Keyes accompanied the visitors to the Exposition and has been their guest at the Palace Hotel.

GRANICE'S WIDOW FILES PETITION

Wants to Sell Homestead and Other Realty to Clean up Estate of Late Editor

The widow of the late H. H. Granice has filed a petition with the Superior Court of this county asking that cause be shown why all the real estate, including the homestead should not be sold. The petition will be heard before Judge Denny on the 29th inst.

In the petition she recites that it is necessary to sell the real estate to pay debts, but she desires to sell the home property subject to her tenure of seven years. The property sold under this condition would probably bring but little and the petition will therefore be opposed by the daughters of the late editor, whose $14,000 estate promises to yield them little or nothing of their natural inheritance. This case bids far to be a flagrant example of the necessity for legislation to protect children of the first marriage from being ignored in the distribution of the life earnings of deceased parents.

In this case there was no will but the law's disposal of the $14,000 makes it possible for the widow to have exempt property to the amount of more than half the estate set aside to her and with her additional one third and the fees of administration and the payment of debts, the children of the parents, whose life earnings are here represented, are the very last entitled to consideration. Open threats to deprive them of everything bid fare to be made good by the widow and administratrix of this estate.

Much good work was done on the plaza Thursday by the Native Sons.

More Property Bought By Mrs. E. Fethers

Big Realty Transaction By Which "Bellevue Hotel" and "Harry's Inn" is Acquired By Entering Resort Owner

Mrs. Emma Fethers, who during a seven years residence in Sonoma Valley has built one of the finest summer resorts in Northern California, has further shown her confidence in Sonoma Valley by purchasing two more pieces of property this week, the Bellevue at El Verano and the Chauvet Hotel, known as "Harry's Inn" of Glen Ellen. The transaction involves about $15,000 and Mrs. Fethers has acquired the two resorts as investments believing that Sonoma Valley, with its magnificent mineral waters, climate, scenery and accessibility to San Francisco has no equal as the health and recreation spot of the West. Fethers Springs has been brought up to the highest state of improvement and is the mecca of thousands of vacationers each year.

The Bellevue and Harry's Inn which have been conducted by O. C. Benjamin and Harry Wilkins will continue under the present managements as the leases hold good and the changes simply effects the title to the property which Mrs. Fethers purchases from the Chauvet Estate. The Bellevue is a commanding hotel of brick and frame construction in the popular El Verano district. The Glen Ellen property is a large brick building and the pride of the upper part of the Sonoma Valley. The deal is one of the most important realty transactions of the year and will be completed the coming week.

L. B. Lawson of the Lawson-Kinner Optical Company of Santa Rosa, will be in Sonoma at the Union Hotel, Thursday November 18th.

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

At the business meeting last Friday the Woman's Club found that in diverse ways its finances were increased very satisfactory, especially the Club House fund. Taxes on the property on First St. East were ordered paid, and more cash to be placed in the savings bank.

A new name was proposed for membership.

The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club is an active member of the California Travelers Aid Society. A report from this organization stated that from February 1st to October 1st, 1915, the enormous number of 76,349 travelers had been assisted at the booth in the Ferry Building and 15,119 on the Exposition grounds.

The Sonoma County Council will hold its annual meeting on Friday, November 12th, at the Rincon Valley Club House. All club Women should make a point of attending, as many interesting features are on the program, matters of importance to Sonoma County. The ride up and back on the auto bus is of itself an inducement. A basket lunch should be taken.

Another delightful card party will be given in the club parlors on Tuesday evening, November 16th. The public is cordially invited. Admission (including refreshments) 35cts.

The next social afternoon of the Club will be on Friday, November 19th, when an interesting program will be followed by the usual chat over the tea cups. Visitors are welcome. Mrs. C. C. Cowgill will be the hostess.

Firestone Faith

The Firestone ideas of motor-ing are founded on a belief in the wisdom and common sense of the motorist—and this faith has been justified. Firestone's success has proven that the car owner wants safety, comfort and Most Miles per Dollar. He wants the quality that costs less to use. The Non-Skid lettering is an imprint of safety. You need it always—but particularly at this time of year. It holds the standard for endurance and economy. The letters prevent spin or skid in any direction, they reduce the heat of road friction, insure perfect traction with gasoline economy, car-protection and maximum comfort. Everywhere experienced motorists praise Firestone performance.

A Burning Question

Lives were lost in the Cloverdale fire and Healdsburg had a costly conflagration. This is bringing the truth home to us. Towns cannot be too well protected against fire. Let us profit by the experience of our sister cities and not wait until visited by disaster before we wake up. While the water question is in abeyance every other improvement we make in the town is just glossing over the ugly truth of our unpreparedness.

Unlike preparedness in war, fire protection does not invite conflagration, but every hour we put off the matter of bettering our water supply to combat a possible holocaust, just that much more do we jeopardize our lives and property, and it is nothing short of criminal much less unprogressive and unbusiness like. However if a community feels that it can afford to be both of these latter it cannot conscientiously shoulder the blame that may accrue from lack of timely action should our homes be reduced to ashes and lives sacrificed because of our procrastination. Locking the stable when the horse is gone is no business for the municipality of today. It is a fallacy which makes individuals and communities ridiculous and the wonderment of the on looker. Yet right now we are placing ourselves within the possibility of the light ridiculous by our haphazard, easy go lucky attitude toward this vital question.

Our pockets are hard hit by the almost prohibitive insurance rates for no company regards Sonoma as a good risk. Our bumps of caution are well developed along other lines. Our building restrictions are bringing the truth home to us, yet there is community apathy in the matter of starting the water campaign.

We owe it not only to ourselves and to those who look to us for protection but also to the volunteer firemen of this town who for years have stood ready day or night to throw themselves with self sacrificing courage into any hazardous call and have done so many times in the face of impossible odds, whereas had they been provided with an adequate water supply their heroic and splendid efforts would have averted costly consequences.

Santa Rosa has had several very expensive fires of late and so have other of our sister cities, shall we wait until the fire bell rings and fear grips us and our loved ones rush in to stay the flames of disaster before we realize our unpreparedness?

Looking at the water question with a quieter vision, in a calmer aspect it is still incumbent upon us to take it up. The public utilities commission sets forth that a municipal concern can furnish its service very much cheaper than the private corporation so that our water rate under the bigger plan would be less than now. It would be revenue in the pockets of the individual and according to Cloverdale's experience would be a community money maker as evidenced by the following report. "As superintendent of the municipal water works, Mr. Connor reported the collections for water service during the last month as $398.55. The operating expenses of the plant were $204.90, leaving a net cash profit of $188.65."—Reveille.

To show how senseless agitation to promulgate reform measures hurts business and retards financial growth is evidenced by reports from various industries and summer resorts right here in Sonoma Valley which have been told by banks that money could not be loaned for improvement and expansion of their business because of the threatened dry campaign to legislate people out of business. Directly and indirectly this hurts everybody and in every line there is the confidence lacking which makes for stability and good times. Business is injured at the expense of a lot of good people because a few agitators threaten them and keep California in a turmoil.

The good promised can not ever be delivered and the bitter contest will either result as it did before or if they succeed in putting people out of business, the state will not be sanctified but will become hypocritical like the reformers themselves.

Congressman Kent and Collector of Internal Revenue J. J. Scott were in Cloverdale Wednesday and heard the protest of the Grape Growers Protective Association relative to the burdensome wine tax. The data was convincing and will be put before Congress who should on the showing being made all over the State, repeal the unjust levy on our magnificent viticultural industry.

The congressman from this and every other district in California should be untiring in their efforts to show the wide spread havoc which comes from the enforcement of such legislation as is directed against our grape growers.

In China they break the family chop sticks and that is the sign of divorce. Wonderful "noodles" to think that out and the soup for the lawyers is immense.

It is the wise thing for humanity to seek the Lord, if there is a God. We do not enjoy him; we are not careful in our lives to please Him and we carry no conscious proof that God is our personal helper and guide. We may believe there is a God but we have not sought to find him. He is not in our experience, for we have not prepared the way for God to enter our hearts. We can associate with Him and know Him but we are free to do as we please, for God will not compel us to walk with him. We do not labor or deny ourselves to feel Gods friendship. We are willing to be saved by God but we do not want to give anything for it. We ought to seek and find out God. We ought not to wait until some revivalist or cold douche of pain or sorrow turns our thoughts Godward. We ought to clean up and get ready for our divine guest. It is up to men to invite the King of Glory to come in. Dont wait for religion to come to you. Go after it. Hunt it up. Go to school to God.

He will teach you that belief is essential, not head belief but heart belief that is a tendency of life toward Him. You will need to repent which is a right about face in your way of action. Your faith in the gospel will cause you to obey the commandments of Jesus. You will need self-control in the name of Jesus and you will need self direction for self sanctification. Reform is valuable but love-less reform is selfishness. Live a life of affection for the Savior of men and treat men as you would God in human form for this is Gods standard of measurement. You must seek God and the bible teaches you the way. Come to church and learn what to do.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT SUGGESTIONS

I would like to see the High School grounds put in better shape. They are unsightly and unattractive at present and it seems to me that if a little basket ball energy and mathematical calculation was concentrated on the beautification of the surroundings down there, it would reflect a lot of credit on the school.

Some of the present trees could be trimmed and removed while new shrubs and trees could be substituted. I feel there should be more pride in the appearance of this fine piece of property and hope this suggestion will bear fruit.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will be entertained on Thursday, November 18, by Mrs. Clements at her home in Edendale, near Schellville. She is looking forward to a good crowd.

Elaine Gorton, a pretty little dark-eyed miss of five years, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. Johansen, during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gorton, her parents, in Seattle.

Mrs. W. L. Murphy was a dinner guest Monday evening of the C. W. Smiths in San Francisco. Their table silver bears the name of Gale and was purchased in Washington, D. C., from the firm which President Wilson's fiancée has made famous.

Miss Kate McDonnell, the accommodating librarian has returned from her vacation spent at the Fair.

The White Shell Club met at the Fred Joosts last week. The president and vice-president however missed this pleasant session.

B. F. Keechler and his nephews John and Joe Riebli of Santa Rosa, spent three days at the Fair recently and report a fine trip.

Mrs. Maria Cahill, a sister of J. M. Burke and formerly a pioneer Sonoma resident, died last week at her home in San Francisco.

The marriage of Miss Amelia M. Ferini, daughter of the prominent dairymen, and Joseph Kiser, took place last Wednesday at Napa.

Doctor Parramore and Rudy Lichenberg were in San Francisco and Oakland last Saturday baiting the pond for Seals and cultivating the soil for Oaks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Oge came up from the Islands Tuesday and are in San Francisco for the closing days of the Exposition. They will later be the guests of the B. F. Campbells on Broadway.

Wedding bells will ring out around Christmas time for one of our prominent Italian residents who is to wed a charming widow who has summered at Oak Grove.

Lander Stevens of Boyes Springs, the actor and manager who is putting ball players into vanderbilt and otherwise making himself useful as well as ornamental, will shortly star in a new sketch over the Pantages Circuit.

In the case of the people against Tognacca of Bodega charged with selling liquor in dry territory the jury stood ten to two for acquittal. The jury was out an hour and a half but could not agree.

A petition for letters of administration in the estate of the late John J. Daughney has been filed in the Superior Court by R. A. Poppe of Sonoma for D. F. Crane. Daughney died in San Francisco December 6, 1913 and left an estate of $300 at El Verano. Katherine Daughney, his widow, waived her rights as administratrix.

INFANT LAID TO REST

The remains of little James Richard Lund, one year of age, were brought here from Oakland and interred in Mountain Cemetery Wednesday. The child died of whooping cough. He was the son of former residents of Schellville.

RAINFALL WELCOME BY FARMERS.

The first real rain of the season was welcomed here Monday morning by our farmers and stockraisers, who are anxious for a thorough soaking of the ground after the exceeding dryness of October. The rainfall for the season thus far is .55 of an inch.

SEBASTIANI WINERY HAD BIG SEASON

Sonoma's Large Plant Model of Industrial Enterprise and is Still Growing

The installation of the new sixty five thousand gallon tank at the winery of Sam Sebastiani, north east of town, marks another progressive step in the growth of this splendid plant which each year is expanding and reflecting more credit on the enterprising owner. The tank was made to order and is the second largest in the county; the Italian Swiss Colony boasting the only larger container. The tank has been filled with wine made from grapes Mr. Sebastiani purchased this season here in Sonoma Valley and from Lake, Mendocino, Napa and Yolo counties.

The price paid was a salvation to many growers and the vintage will be marketed both here on the Coast and in New York for which city Mr. Sebastiani will shortly leave on his annual business trip.

The big winery on the sixteen acre site with substantial stone buildings, its well kept drives, bridges, culverts and spur track accommodations is a valuable addition to the valley and shows how the right man can achieve success and benefit the community where he establishes himself.

HELLO, KENWOOD! CONGRATULATION!

The Kenwood Rural Telephone Company has effected a deal with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company by which the rural company has sub-licensed the territory about Kenwood and will handle that field hereafter.

The arrangement, which has just been completed, will insure better service in the future than has been afforded the farmers of the district in the past. Night service, the bone of contention for months past, is assured for the patrons of the rural line, and is regarded by them as a great boon.

The arrangement comes as the result of a complaint filed with the State Railroad Commission by the Kenwood company, against the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company because the latter refused to furnish night service to the Kenwood Company.

DRUIDS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

Sonoma Grove No. 75 Had Big Time Saturday Night

Sonoma Grove No. 75, U. A. O. D. had its annual installation of officers and initiation of candidates last Saturday night. The occasion was a gala one and was attended by the grand officers from San Francisco and a large number of local members. The visiting grand officers were N. G. A., James Fugazi; P. A., D. Puccinelli; P. A., S. Dee Prete; P. A., L. Barstott; P. A., O. Fannucci; P. A., F. Rovai; P. A., R. Tomasini.

The following officers were installed: P. A., B. Mori; N. A., E. Pasquini; V. A., M. Allemano; N. O., P. Basaglia; N. B., A. Bertellotti; Cond. E. Mazucchi; I. G., F. Dal Porto; O. G., S. Codutti; Secty., A. Beretta; Treas. F. Canevari.

After the impressive ceremonies attendant upon the installation and initiation, the lodge sat down to a fine banquet at the Toscano Hotel. The dining room had been prettily decorated and the feast was all that could have been desired. A Beretta acted as toastmaster and there were many toasts and congratulations on the flourishing condition of the Grove which now numbers 76 members and has five thousand dollars in the treasury.

SYNCOPATION IN BOOKKEEPING

Colored Gentlemen in Court Air Kitchen Trouble

A Sneed, a negro who was brought back from Vallejo to face a charge of defrauding Chas. Franklin, keeper of the State Highway construction kitchen, must have had his rabbits foot with him Monday for the case against him was dismissed. Sneed proved to the satisfaction of the court that it was syncopation in bookkeeping that caused the trouble. Sneed is an accountant and Franklin misconstructed his figures so the Judge was informed. The complainant not being able to show that Sneed was really "in wrong," the action was dismissed.

THE WINNERS IN DUHRING'S CONTEST

The piano contest, which has been running for the past six months at Duhring's, closed at 10 o'clock Saturday night. The closing aroused great interest among the contestants and their friends and a large number of people were in attendance at the finish.

HIGH SCHOOL ANNEX ACCEPTED

The new Domestic Science annex to the High School has been turned over by Contractor Murphy and accepted by the trustees.

The structure spick and span in its smooth white coat of enamel paint is the last word in sanitary arrangement and efficiency. The twenty five students enrolled in the course, which is now being given in the physical laboratory of the school, will shortly move into their new home and cooking and sewing will begin. Miss Lillian Hyde of Worcester, Mass. and also Stanford graduate, will devote her best energies to this department of which she has charge and whose place in the school curriculum she values so highly. Miss Hyde points out the discipline which such a course makes possible and its value in determining values, building up health, raising the standard of environment and cultivating the artistic sense and proper proportion both as to house decoration and in the matter of personal appearance and dress. All these essentials are brought out through practical illustration in the class room where real cooking is done and where sewing, the different stitches and use of patterns and sewing machines is all thoroughly mastered. Even the mental attitude and spirit of the work is quickened so that High School trained home makers will be thoroughly agreeable and companionable.

The scope of such work is broad and its good to a High School far reaching.

LOST—In Union Hall, Friday evening, October 22, at Congregational entertainment, an umbrella, with heart shaped ornaments on handle. Finder please leave at Index Tribune office, and oblige the owner.

OUR LIVE SUBURBS

VINEBURG

Work has commenced on the widening of the county road by the N.W. P. R. R. Co. along its track from Capt. Bosch's to Batto's crossing.

Mrs. D. Colli returned from the metropolis on last Monday evening after spending a week with friends and relatives.

Miss Elizabeth McDevitt daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDevitt of Sonoma and one of the prize winners in the Bulletin's Baby Beauty contest was the guest of her cousin, Miss Emily Batto last week.

We return our thanks to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Curry for the present of fruit of the spineless cactus. It was certainly fine. Mr. Curry is the only farmer in this vicinity who has cactus bearing fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bell of Alameda were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Trautvetter on Sunday last.

Messrs. Monson and Nichols representing the San Francisco mill furnishing company visited Vineburg on Sunday last and inspected the feed mill erected by the company at the plant of John Batto and sons. Both gentlemen who are experts declared the mill perfect. One more home run for Vineburg.

On last Sunday evening while Jim Small was at divine service a burglar broke into his sleeping apartments at 8th. and Denmark streets and stole his pants. The thing is well known. Jim says that he can have the pants, but if he does not return the money and family heirlooms that were in the pockets he will enter suit for breach of promise.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto, Misses Adele Andrieux, Louisa and Emily Batto and Masters Fredrick and Herbert Batto visited the metropolis on Sunday.

A delegation of prominent property owners of the Hyde tract motored to Glen Ellen on Sunday last to meet supervisor Harry Weise and to discuss the question of graveling the county road through the Hyde tract. Their mission must have been successful as a number of men and teams are now at work on the road.

Mr. Al Trautvetter one of the pioneer poultry men of the Hyde tract and well known in San Francisco business circles has purchased a swell five passenger Chevrolet automobile. Some class to the Hyde tract. Who next?

Most all of the burgs' crack shots visited the Fred Hansen turkey shoot on last Sunday and report a fine time.

Oscar Studley is at present hauling gravel for the foundation of the new cannery at Vineburg.

EL VERANO

Miss Clements of El Verano has had a serious case of blood poisoning due to an injury to her hand.

Mrs. Chas. Spindler has been ill and was at the Gobar Sanitarium for several days.

Quite a number of local residents attended the turkey raffle and shoot last Sunday. Some were lucky with the "bones" and on the wheel while others used their fowling pieces to advantage on the bulls eye.

Among the many who attended the turkey raffle at the Savoy Sunday was Bill Russell of Sonoma.

Carlos Empanan is now braking on the local S. P. freight train. Carlos has been working recently on the Calistoga run of the S. P.

John Basileu the well known tonsorial medico and a party of friends motored down to the tules Tuesday in quest of wild water fowl.

Louis Kearney was a Santa Rosa passenger on the S. P. Saturday evening returning home Sunday afternoon.

Constable Jack Murray and speed officer Ragain were in town Monday.

Fred Berryessa who holds a responsible position with the government in San Francisco and Louis Wachlin of Vallejo spent Sunday at the Savoy. Mr. Wachlin is interested in this hostelry.

Every one is going to the dance at Agua Caliente Springs auditorium next Saturday night.

SONOMA PEOPLE PRAISE SIMPLE MIXTURE

Many in Sonoma praise the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adger-ika. This remedy is the most thorough bowel cleanser ever sold being even successfully in appendicitis. One spoonful relieves almost any case of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. One minute after you take it the gasses rumble and pass out. Adger-ika cannot gripe and the instant action is surprising. James McElnevy, Druggist.

GLEN ELLEN

Mrs. Edna Poppe Cooper expects to visit the Exposition shortly.

Supervisor Weise is giving much attention to the progress of the much needed bridge near Chauvets.

Mr. Harry Weise, wife of our Supervisor, has been visiting the Panama Pacific Exposition.

Supervisor Weise has gone down to San Diego to be present at the California Development Board meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Levy took in the "Squaw Man" at Santa Rosa this week.

The Glen Ellen drug store is doing a rushing business. Not all sickness but vanity and utility Mr. Benson caters to.

Twenty five applicants for State Home positions stopped at Harrys Inn pending the Civil Service examinations yesterday at the big institution at Eldridge. Mine host Wilkens showed them every courtesy.

Turkey to be Sacrificed

The sacrifice will take place on November 25th. and will occasion much feasting. Be prepared. Clewe has a full line of condiments such as nuts, raisins, mince meat, all kinds of peels, plum pudding etc. *

STATE HOME HAS PROUD RECORD

Perhaps the Best State Institution in California is the Home for the Care and Training of Feeble Minded Children in this Valley

One of the finest buys that was ever made was certainly the purchase of the magnificent property at Eldridge where the State Home is located and its record for efficiency and self supporting features make it a institution of which we can well feel proud. Dr. Dawson has administered its internal affairs well during his many years as superintendent and his attention to details in the matter of handling so many heads of departments has played no small part in the irreproachable record of the Home. While not attempting the impossible nor the radical or bringing himself into the light of a great benefactor, Dr. Dawson has been conscientious, business like and devoted to his duties and has made for himself and the institution a reputation than is worthy of emulation.

Under his regime the Home has increased from a farm of fifteen buildings to a community of thirty five finely equipped structures and a waiting list of 250.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS

Mrs. Brown, residing on the old Brandt place near Vineburg, was kicked by a horse one day this week while entering a stall at the barn. Dr. Gobar was summoned and found the injured woman to have sustained a broken rib and possible internal injuries. The patient is resting easy.

J. A. Musselman, an employee of the Foster ranch, had the misfortune to have the horse he was riding fall upon him during the slippery weather Monday and as a result his left foot was badly crushed. Foreman Elbersol bought him to the Gobar Sanitarium for treatment.

John Duhring, who sprained his ankle in a football scrimmage, is improving.
